

““I’ve focused my career on helping underserved patients get the healthcare they need, be they homeless, uninsured, new immigrants or low-income Americans.”

About Daniel Jannuzzi, MD

During college, it was a volunteer job at a faith-based free clinic in Washington, D.C. that led Dr. Daniel Jannuzzi to the conclusion that he wanted to provide healthcare to underserved people. And he's stuck to that commitment for nearly 30 years. "I've focused my career on helping underserved patients get the healthcare they need, be they homeless, uninsured, new immigrants or low-income Americans," he says. "I joined JenCare to meet the needs of underserved seniors and to do so with quality and efficiency. My relationship with patients is a sacred thing. I'm here to work with them on a plan that improves or maintains their health and makes their senior years 'golden'."
