About Yesenia Bahena, MD

Ever since Dr. Yesenia Bahena was young, she has been fascinated by how the human body works and passionate about caring for others. As a physician, she has spent much of her time with seniors and understands their unique challenges. “I love establishing relationships with each of my patients and helping them stay as healthy as possible,” Dr. Bahena says. “It’s also a great feeling when I can help seniors spend more time with their families in this phase of their lives.”

When she is not with patients or expanding her medical knowledge, Dr. Bahena enjoys quality time with her husband and young daughter. She also dreams of visiting Thailand soon.
