“I am dedicated to providing excellent care for my senior patients—just like I would for my parents and grandparents.”

About Pratyusha Reddy Gudipally, MD

Since childhood, Dr. Pratyusha Reddy Gudipally has been fascinated with the field of medicine. She was greatly influenced by her own primary care doctor, and she’s proud to be following his example to help and heal others. “I am dedicated to providing excellent care for my senior patients—just like I would for my parents and grandparents,” says Dr. Gudipally, who is board certified in family medicine. “Being a part of their lives and taking care of them in their time of need is very satisfying.”

In her free time, Dr. Gudipally likes to keep up with the latest medical research and spend time with her supportive husband, family, and friends. She also enjoys travel and hopes to visit Europe one day.
