“My favorite part of being a physician is building relationships with patients, their families, colleagues, and staff.”

About Noel Battle, MD

Dr. Noel Battle knew at a young age that he wanted to pursue a career in the medical field. “I saw the care provided to my maternal grandmother by her physicians and nurses, and I knew that I wanted to go into healthcare,” he says. His favorite part of being a physician is “building relationships with patients, their families, colleagues, and staff.” Dr. Battle establishes these strong connections with patients “by listening and treating them the way they would want to be treated.” He has been practicing medicine for over twenty and is always seeking opportunities to continue learning.

In his free time, Dr. Battles loves exercising and watching sports. He also loves dancing and has been a salsa dancer for twenty years.
