About Aiesha Cole, APRN, FNP-BC

Aiesha Cole is a family nurse practitioner who specializes in primary and LGBTQ+ care. “I believe my approach to healthcare gives much-needed support and helps the underserved have an advocate and voice in the healthcare system,” she explains. She views her relationship with patients as a partnership and likes encouraging patients to stay active in their health journey. “I ensure they know that I will respect their decisions for their health and provide support for them along the way,” she says. Her practice is patient-centered. “I believe in caring for the whole person,” she explains.

In her free time, Aiesha Cole loves gardening, baking, and spending time with family. She also enjoys volunteering in her community.
